Position Announcement: Retirement Plans Director June 2022

Eder Financial is looking for a director level individual to lead our retirement plan product line. If the following bolded statements sound like you or someone you know, please submit a cover letter, resume, and three professional references to Tammy Chudy at tchudy@cobbt.org

“I am a leader who likes to proactively problem solve.”

Our director level positions require individuals who can appropriately solve for the spoken and unspoken needs of our external and internal customers.

“I can work remote.”

While we do have some tasks and meetings which require an onsite presence, most of our work is done remotely from our homes so we need people who work well independently.

“I want to care for myself and my family.”

We have a fair compensation structure with a strong benefits package that includes organizational contributions for retirement, medical, life, and long-term disability, as well as options to add dental, vision, and short-term disability coverage. In addition, we offer 22 days of vacation, accrued at the start of the year. We also have flexible work hours within a basic workday structure.

“I see meaningful work in the simplest of tasks.”

We offer products and services that enable security, wellness, and stability in a constantly changing world. Within that context, we are looking for people who will lead strategic initiatives but also pitch in with seemingly small tasks that show we care for those we serve.

“I want to work for a brand of influence.”

We have recently rebranded to Eder Financial, previously known as Brethren Benefit Trust. Our organization provides retirement, insurance, and organizational investing to over 5,000 individual and client organizations nationwide. The new brand allows us to expand our client base and therefore our influence.

“I am a person of faith.”

This is a full-time, exempt position working for a not-for-profit, faith-based organization that aligns with peace church traditions. Our employees practice their faith in a diverse array of worldviews and denominations.

“I have relevant content knowledge and experience.”

The Retirement Plans Director position requires at least an undergraduate degree, 4 to 8 years of experience, effective oral and written communication skills, and experience in benefit or retirement plans. This position requires a person who enjoys working in a team environment, views our retirement product line with an entrepreneurial mindset, is both data and detailed oriented, and is proficient in computer systems, particularly Excel and PowerPoint. The individual will use this background to develop and manage the programs related to retirement plan products and services.

“I want to work with the decision makers in the organization.”

The Retirement Plans Director position reports to the VP of Products & Services, Lynnae Rodeffer.

“I am available for some travel.”

The position requires attendance at an annual Church Plan Workshop in April and a Church Benefits Association conference in December. Organizationally, we meet in person a couple of times a year. Other networking or educational travel might also be available.

“I might be a fit or know someone who is!”
